

ASSI Stories Application Form

Please fill out your details below if you are an Australian South Sea Islander wanting to apply to participate in the Australian South Sea Islander Stories (ASSI Stories) project.

ASSI Stories is a multimedia storytelling project based in Brisbane (and online). Monthly storytelling and media workshops are set to start in May 2014 through to October 2014 with a screening event in December.

We are looking for Australian South Sea Islanders, of all ages either:

- living in Brisbane to participate in the Brisbane workshops;
- ASSI people living outside of Brisbane to participate in online media activities.

Participants will be involved in discussions around ASSI identities and narratives; and you will learn all the skills you need to produce a short videos - other opportunities to explore art, music and other artforms can be discussed. Participation will be free.

DEADLINE: Please apply BEFORE 5pm on Friday 25 April 2014.
